IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.8816 of 2008
LAV KUSH TIWARY
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR

4/ 16.09.2008 Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

The informant's daughter Kavita Kumari aged about 22 years was married with the petitioner in the year 2002. She was being subjected to torture in connection with dowry related demands. Subsequently she was killed and the dead body was disposed of.

Submission is that the death was on account of excessive bleeding and nobody was responsible for the occurrence. The witnesses have stated that the cause of death was excessive bleeding. Though medical prescription is missing but witnesses' statement is incorporated in the case diary.

The petitioner is the husband and there is allegation that the victim was being subjected in connection with dowry related demands. The death is within seven years of marriage and not in normal circumstance. His role cannot be equated with others.

Considering all the aspects of the case, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly his prayer for bail is rejected.
